BGC PARTNERS' EIGHTH ANNUAL CHARITY DAY TOOK PLACE ON TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 2012, MARKING ELEVEN YEARS SINCE THE TRAGEDY OF 9/11.

BGC PARTNERS AND CANTOR FITZGERALD TOGETHER RAISED APPROXIMATELY $12 MILLION GLOBALLY ON THIS SINGLE DAY FOR WORTHY CAUSES AROUND THE WORLD.

TO DATE, THEY HAVE RAISED APPROXIMATELY $89 MILLION FOR CHARITIES.

Every year, BGC Partners and Cantor Fitzgerald, in conjunction with the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund, commemorate our 658 friends and colleagues who perished on September 11, 2001 by distributing 100% of our global revenues on Charity Day to the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund and over 100 charities around the world. The Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund, created to assist families of Cantor employees who were lost on 9/11, has broadened its mission to provide aid to victims of terrorism, natural disasters and emergencies, and has raised and distributed over $250 million. A proud sponsor of Charity Day, this year the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund is honored to also assist victims of Hurricane Sandy.

A host of celebrities join BGC on our trading floor in support of Charity Day each year. Our guests this year included actors Andrew Garfield, Billy Crudup, Susan Sarandon, Edie Falco, Adrian Grenier, Tony Sirico and John Turturro, musician Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson, former Mayor of New York Rudy Giuliani, New York Knicks star Carmelo Anthony, Eli Manning and Victor Cruz from the New York Giants, Mark Sanchez and Coach Rex Ryan from the New York Jets, tennis legend John McEnroe, and many others.

Each anniversary is a poignant occasion for us. Charity Day is our way of turning a tragic day into one that is positive and uplifting by helping others.

Many thanks to our clients, brokers, celebrity ambassadors and charities. Your commitment, support, enthusiasm and graciousness make Charity Day a spectacular success.

The mission of The 52nd Street Project, a community-based arts organization, is to bring together kids from Hell's Kitchen in Manhattan, starting at age ten and lasting through their teens, with theater professionals to create original theater offered free to the general public. By building on the core experience of accomplishment and collaboration, the Project fosters a sense of inclusion in a place where the children belong and where their creative work is the driving force. Through long-term mentoring relationships and exposure to diverse art forms (including Poetry, Photography, Theatrical Design, Dance, Stage Combat and Filmmaking), the Project seeks to expand the children's means of expression and to improve their literacy, their life skills and their attitude towards learning.

Founded in the wake of the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center, the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund has raised and distributed $180 million to over 800 families and 932 children of the victims of that tragedy. The Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund's expanded scope has included such natural disasters as the devastation caused by Hurricane Katrina, the tsunami of 2004, the earthquakes in Haiti and Japan, Superstorm Sandy in the U.S., as well as the wounded members of our military. In addition, the Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund supports a wide variety of other charitable organizations providing assistance to those in need. Cantor Fitzgerald Chairman and CEO Howard Lutnick and the partners of Cantor Fitzgerald underwrite all the expenses of the fund so that 100 percent of every dollar raised goes directly to those in need. The Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund administered by its Co-Founder and Executive Director, Edie Lutnick, has raised and distributed over $250 million. #### John and Patty McEnroe Foundation

The John and Patty McEnroe Foundation is a Not-for-Profit Corporation of the State of New York. It was granted recognition by the United States Internal Revenue Service in March 1988 as an organization exempt from U.S. Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation was formed by John McEnroe in December 1986 to use its funds in support of other charitable organizations that similarly qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Over the years the Foundation has made contributions to a large number of diverse charitable organizations, including those providing services in support of police and fire families in need; research in looking for cures for many diseases, such as cancer, cystic fibrosis, Alzheimer's, heart problems, AIDS and others; the New York Times Neediest Fund; environmental issues, such as protection of various bodies of water and similar groups; and a variety of other charitable organizations.

The New York Police and Fire Widows' and Children's Benefit Fund was founded in 1985 by Daniel J. "Rusty" Staub to assist the families of New York City Police Officers and Firefighters who have been killed in the line of duty. Though the Benefit Fund was initially created to assist the families of New York City Police Officers and Firefighters only, after the tragic events of September 11, 2001, the Benefit Fund included among its beneficiaries the families of Port Authority officers and EMS personnel. The Benefit Fund's mission has always been-- and remains today-- to continue making meaningful distributions to all of our widows for the duration of their lives. The Benefit Fund makes annual distributions to over 600 families and takes pride in "answering the call" as our fallen heroes have done to protect our city. Since its inception, the Benefit Fund has distributed over $123 million to beneficiary families and continues to provide a network of support and programs to ensure that the sacrifice made by their loved ones will never be forgotten. The Todd Ouida Children's Foundation was established by Todd's family to create a meaningful legacy for Todd, whose life was tragically ended in the September 11th terrorist attack on the World Trade Center. Born out of Todd's own successful struggle with childhood anxiety, the mission of the foundation is to: financially support psychological services for children of families in need and promote mental health initiatives for all children, raise awareness and reduce the stigma of anxiety and depression disorders in children, recognizing the need for early intervention and provide contact information for those seeking help. www.mybuddytodd.org

The Tony Alt Memorial Foundation seeks to facilitate hope and opportunity for today's youth; when life goals are challenged by unfortunate personal situations, tragedy and adversity. Our mission is to provide financial assistance to organizations whose purpose is focused on today's youth; providing unavailable resources, guidance and care to those in need in an effort to improve hope and opportunities for productive and successful lives. We also provide scholarship opportunities for individuals who strive to attend institutions of higher learning. www.tamfi.org

The mission of Wounded Warrior Project™ (WWP) is to honor and empower wounded warriors. WWP's purpose is to raise awareness and enlist the public's aid for the needs of injured service members, to help injured servicemen and women aid and assist each other, and to provide unique, direct programs and services to meet their needs. WWP is a national, nonpartisan organization headquartered in Jacksonville, Florida. www.woundedwarriorproject.org

The mission of Worldwide Orphans is to transform the lives of orphaned children and help them to become healthy, independent, productive members of their communities and the world. We believe that institutionalized children must be integrated in their own communities and cultures, and to that end, all WWO programs include orphans and children from the local areas. WWO addresses children's physical and mental health, their education and their ability to plan for and to achieve that is productive and fulfilling in their own countries. www.wwo.org

The mission of Youth Consultation Service (better known as YCS) is to partner with at-risk and special needs children, youth and young adults to build happier, healthier, more hopeful lives within their families and communities. As a private, non-profit social services agency YCS has been serving children and families throughout New Jersey since 1918. Each day YCS cares for approximately 1,500 children, in therapeutic group homes, in-community/in-home programs and special education schools. Some of the children are separated from their loved ones and have been affected by trauma, others are challenged by intellectual and developmental disabilities that adversely affect their behavior. Whatever the child's mental health or behavioral health needs, the caring YCS staff is prepared to offer individualized services to both the child and family until his or her health is stabilized.
